Senate, House Vote to Form Separate Levee Districts

Built 70 Years Ago Castings Plant Will Be Closed

The Castings Division plant of General Steel Industries, Inc. in Granite City will be closed next year as soon as all present production orders are filled or adjusted.

The decision to shut down the Granite City plant and GSI's St. Louis Car division was reached in a meeting of the board of directors Thursday afternoon. The 2:30 p.m. session ended at 4:30 p.m. with the shutdown decision.

Shutdown of the two plants will put about 1,450 employees out of work, with the number of workers about evenly divided in the two plants.

W. Ashley Gray Jr., GSI president, said the divisions are being closed because of continuing losses and poor market prospects.

"Every possible means of returning the two plants to profitable operation have been explored and all known alternatives evaluated," Gray said. "While we deeply regret the need for closing these plants, there is no other way to free GSI of an impossible financial burden and allow the corporation to realize the benefits of its newer, healthier divisions," he said.

Shutdown of the plant here is viewed as an economic blow, following closely the October closing of the Corn Sweeteners, Inc. plant in Granite City.

The Corn Sweeteners plant formerly was operated by Miles Laboratories, Inc., with approximately 300 persons. Slightly more than 200 were on the Corn Sweeteners payroll at the time of the October closing.

The Castings Division plant—operated in Granite City for 70 years—employed from 1,800 to 2,000 at peak operating levels, but in recent years employed about 1,200 until cutbacks began this year because of lack of orders.

Gray said the company will continue to operate five other profitable divisions. Under a proposed plan approved by the board of directors Thursday afternoon, holders of the indebtedness will accept secured notes with a final maturity date of March 31, 1975.

As pointed out early this month, liquidating GSI's investment at the Castings and St. Louis Car plants will result in an extraordinary, one-time non-recurring charge for 1972 of approximately $31 million.

Combined with the estimated operating loss for 1972, the extraordinary charge will bring GSI's total loss for the year to approximately $36 million.

Operations and employment at the two plants are to be reduced as work is completed and the production closed down in phases. The end for both operations will come next year, Gray said.

The five divisions that will remain in operation are the National Roll Division, producers of cast iron and cast steel rolls; Flex-O-Lite division, producers of reflector materials for highway safety; Standard Pipeprotection division, which makes protective coatings and wrappings for steel and plastic pipes.

Ludlow-Saylor Wire Cloth division, manufacturers of wire mesh, will be sold to a buyer. The division's payroll at the time of the October closing.

State Favors Area Joining Lewis-Clark

Although a Quad-City-Collinsville area study group has reached no conclusion yet about how junior college services could best be obtained, the Illinois Junior College Board decided Friday at Chicago to urge annexation to the Lewis and Clark District at Godfrey.

The board action at its December session was taken on the recommendation of Dr. Fred L. Wellman, IJC executive secretary, who said Godfrey north of Alton is close and accessible to this area.

Contrary to news dispatches from Chicago, the IJC has not been asked to approve formation of a new junior college district, nor were any supporting documents for such a proposal submitted.

One of the possibilities under study here is cooperation with Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The SIUE campus is situated within the Lewis and Clark Junior College District, which serves several counties at the former Monticello College campus.

Dr. Wellman told the Illinois Junior College Board, "We have encouraged the officials of this study group to consider as one of their alternatives utilization of the facilities at SIUE in co-operative endeavors, particularly if the area annexes to Lewis and Clark Community College District 336."

"It is our judgment that a community college could not

Schools Schedule Christmas Holidays

Schools in the Quad-City area will dismiss classes for the Christmas holidays on different days this year, but all students will return to their respective schools on Jan. 2.

All Granite City public schools and parochial schools including St. Margaret Mary and Sacred Heart in Granite City, and St. Mary's in Madison, will dismiss on Friday, Dec. 22.

St. Elizabeth Catholic School in Granite City, and all Madison Schools are to dismiss classes on Thursday, Dec. 21. All Venice Schools are to hold their last day of classes on Wednesday, Dec. 20.

New state officials are to begin their terms Monday, Jan. 8, and Governor-elect Daniel Walker (D) has scheduled outdoor ceremonies on the Capitol steps.

Attorney General William J. Scott (R) and Comptroller-elect George W. Lindberg (R) plan to take their oaths inside

No Tax Freeze, No Pay Boosts

The Illinois General Assembly ended its 1972 deliberations Sunday without adopting a proposed property tax freeze and without reaching agreement to increase legislative salaries.

Cessation of the late November regular-and-special session ended Monday morning after a brief session of the old legislature Tuesday, Jan. 9.

New state officials are to begin their terms Monday, Jan. 8, and Governor-elect Daniel Walker (D) has scheduled outdoor ceremonies on the Capitol steps.

Attorney General William J. Scott (R) and Comptroller-elect George W. Lindberg (R) plan to take their oaths inside the Capitol, not outside with Walker, they said Friday.

Each said he intended no snub of the new governor, and he will stand outside to witness the inauguration.

But, he added, "I wouldn't ask my mother or other elderly friends and supporters to stand outside on a wintry day to watch Scott begin his new term."

The property tax freeze had been urged by retiring Governor Richard B. Ogilvie.

The original plan was to have the House and Senate approve a tax freeze and rewritten so that the state would have paid property owners the 1972 and 1973 tax bills.

Bill Approved 36-1 And 124-2 Saturday

Establishment of the Madison Levee and Sanitary District in the Quad-City area was voted 36-1 by the Illinois Senate and 124-2 by the Illinois House on Saturday.

The same bill, approved by a House-Senate conference committee on Friday, also creates the St. Clair Levee and Sanitary District.

The two districts are to be formed from the existing East Side Levee and Sanitary District by dividing the 65-year-old district along the Madison-St. Clair Counties line.

Implementation of House Bill 2416 hinges on it being signed by Governor Richard B. Ogilvie. There have been indications that he is willing to sign it.

As adopted, the amendment to the May 17, 1967, levee district statute calls for a prompt changeover once the bill has been signed. It contains detailed procedures for an orderly transition.

William M. Ebersold of Granite City and Russell D. Robinson of Granite City also said he will stand outside to witness the inauguration.

But, he added, "I wouldn't ask my mother or other elderly friends and supporters to stand outside on a wintry day to watch Scott begin his new term."

The property tax freeze had been urged by retiring Governor Richard B. Ogilvie.

The original plan was to have the House and Senate approve a tax freeze and rewritten so that the state would have paid property owners the 1972 and 1973 tax bills.

Senate Republicans fell seven votes short of approving a test vote on the House-passed bill. Majority Democrats in the Senate then voted to adjourn to begin a holiday vacation.

The senators had showed steady opposition to House-favored legislative pay hikes from the present $17,500 to $19,500 a year.

The Senate also rejected substantial salary boosts for judges and most state university faculty members.

The House on Friday blocked further funds for construction work at the governor's mansion. The Senate voted Friday to retain the same legislative districts for the next eight years as those set by the General Assembly after the 1970 census.

In other Springfield news, Governor-elect Walker last week named Guy R. Oates, California state police chief, University of Illinois Prof. James W. Osterburg and John Foster of Marcor, Inc., to make a nationwide search for a head of the Illinois state police.

William L. Blaser said he will resign as director of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

Three others will be appointed by the governor from names submitted by the four state legislators representing this area.

For the St. Clair District, Romel Wilson, Jack Scoville and Charles Meyers will become members of the new board there along with two appointed by the governor from a list provided by the senator and representatives serving the East St. Louis-Carleton Township area.

Purpose of the division into two districts is to encourage governmental efficiency and also responsiveness to the tax paying public.

The plan was developed by a citizen committee and legislators in cooperation with the General Assembly conference committee and the Division of Water Resource Management of the Illinois Department of Transportation.

John C. Gaillou, chief Illinois waterway engineer, served as chairman of the citizen committee, whose members were City Treasurer Paul Rutledge of Granite City; George F. Becker, a United Steelworkers staff representative; Mrs. Helen M. Hawkins, a longtime advocate of improved drainage; Attorney Randall Robertson; and William F. Winter, editor of the Press-Record.

Legislators instrumental in the effort were State Senator Sam M. Vandalia, of Edwardsville, State Representatives Horace Galvo of Granite City and Leland Kennedy and Robert Walters of Alton, and St. Clair County legislators.

The citizen committee, appointed by Governor Ogilvie met periodically from Aug. 24 to early November to review progress and approach and to prepare the legislation.

The finding was that two districts governed by five trustees would be better than the area of the East Side District. It was felt that operation and maintenance control of the North Pump Station in St. Clair County should become a temporary responsibility of the Division of Water Resource Management during an interim period to not exceed ten years. This plan is a part of Bill 2416.

The divided districts have substantially equal assessed values.

Both new districts are regarded as potentially able to function well, particularly since all of their board members will be from the specific communities served, rather than the present 40%, or 60%, representation.

Four-year board terms are to continue. In case of a vacancy, the legislator is to be notified within ten days; in another 30 days, they are to submit a total of five names to the governor. The latter is to select one of the five within another 30 days.

The new boards for the first time are to have authority to hire an administrator to supervise the operation of a district.

Salary of a board president is not to exceed $6,000 a year, while the pay of each of the other board members is not to be more than $4,800 per year. Each trustee elected or appointed after the amendatory act of 1972 will need a surety bond of ten times the annual salary.

Past bond and interest will be shared on the basis of assessed valuation. Real estate property will be allocated in accordance with the district in which it is situated.

Tangible personal property will be divided according to the latest inventory of the East Side District; cash will be allocated according to the two assessment totals on the effective date of the new law.

Property taxes payable in 1973 are to go to the new districts.

The East Side Levee District is to adopt any supplemental appropriations necessary to provide for expenses of the newly-formed districts from December 1972 through calendar 1973. Such supplemental budgets may be ratified by the new boards upon assuming office.

Intense East St. Louis area opposition to splitting the district had developed in the last few days, linked

Two Traffic Deaths

Two Granite City residents were killed in separate accidents during the weekend. Two persons were injured in one of the accidents.

The dead: Mrs. Louise Alice Ennis, 51, of 2662 Edwards St., who was killed Saturday night when a car she was driving collided with a tractor-trailer unit near Troy, Mo.

Billy G. Farless, 29, of 2151 Edison Ave., fatally injured when he was struck by a car at 2 a.m. Saturday as he stood outside his taxicab on Morrison Road near Warnock Avenue.

Missouri state troopers said Mrs. Ennis' car was northbound on U.S. Highway 61, one mile south of Route C, when it veered across the highway and collided almost head-on with a tractor-trailer driven by Walter Boehn, 48, of Sullivan, Mo., at 8:15 p.m. Saturday.

The tractor-trailer spun off the highway and caught fire. The truck driver was uninjured. The Ennis car also spun off the highway and into a construction area.

Mrs. Ennis was pronounced dead at the Lincoln Memorial Hospital at Troy.

Madison County sheriff's deputies said Mr. Farless was struck as he stood outside his taxicab by a car driven by Michael G. Gooch, 24, of Dupu. The cab also was damaged.

Betty Reyes, 34, of 2431

Adams St., a passenger in the cab was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital suffering head injuries. She was released after treatment. The other passenger, Sonja Clarke, 2431 Adams St., went to the hospital later for treatment and was released.

Deputies said Gooch was charged with driving while intoxicated and was released on bond.

A native of Illinois Mrs. Ennis resided in this area for 20 years. She was employed as an Avon saleslady.

Her husband, Rex Ennis, died Aug. 31, 1968.

Survivors include a daughter, Dianne Elizabeth Ennis of

OTTO KREHER

DON MCNEW

Two at Pontoon Will Not Seek Re-Election

Otto O. Kreher, president of the Pontoon Beach Village Board, and Don R. McNew, a village trustee, announced Thursday night that they will not seek re-election in the April village election.

Trustees Fred Recer and Carl Hackney also indicated Thursday night that they do not plan to seek re-election, but left the matter open in case they should change their minds.

In announcing he would not seek re-election, Kreher said the job requires more of his time than he can give. "I want to get back into working more with the (Long Lake Volunteer) fire department, something I have been unable to do to much extent," he said.

Kreher also said he is a plant worker and is not a professional politician. Issues such as the Environmental Protection Agency pressure to clean up pollution in the village bothers him because he does not know how to satisfy the complicated EPA demands, he said.

McNew gave no reason for his decision but remarked, "There is no way I would seek re-election."

The statements were given in an interview with the Press-Record following Thursday night's village board meeting.

Kreher became the second "mayor" of Pontoon Beach. The first board president, Thomas L. Stauff, resigned Jan. 27, and suggested Kreher be appointed by the board until the April 1973 election.

Kreher will have been a member of the board 10 years at election time. He was elected a trustee when the village was organized. He is employed as a pebbler helper at Granite City Steel Co. blast furnace department.

McNew is a melter at Consolidated Aluminum Co. in Venice.

School Control Problem Due To Big U.S. Role -- Bakalis

With increasing federal involvement in education, it is becoming more and more necessary for state departments of education to act as buffers to assure that local school boards will continue to have a significant voice in educational decision-making, Michael J. Bakalis, state superintendent of public instruction, believes.

In an address for the 1972-73 Oak Park Community Lecture Series, Bakalis said state education officials must become more assertive in an evolving relationship between federal, state and local education authorities.

He said states must become umbrellas over local districts to protect them against a shower of federal controls—most of them tied to federal monetary support—which could erode local control over education.

Bakalis noted that the federal government now accounts for 7% or 8% of the total financial resources available to schools. He added that the local effort for funding for education could easily reach 30% in the near future.

"So unless we construct this partnership of which I speak," Bakalis said, "we may witness a sharp and irreversible reduction in both local and state control. That, I think, is a situation we must avoid at all costs."

"It is the position of my administration," he said, "to strengthen local school districts and provide those who govern them with more and better tools to do the job."

Under terms of the new Illinois Constitution, Bakalis said, the state school superintendent will be appointed by a new state board of education, yet to be established.

Moonspinners 4-H Club Plans Annual Christmas Party

Anita Turner, president of the Moonspinners 4-H Club, presided at its December meeting held at the Nemo United Presbyterian Church, Crystal Andrews led the pledge to the flag, and the 4-H Pledge was led by Mary Ann Bequette. Roll call by Lori Malotki, vice-president, was answered by the girls naming their favorite color.

Madison.

The Moonspinners will hold their Christmas party from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Dec. at the church. Committee members planning the affair are Karen Ozbun, Rosalie Ponce, and junior leaders Ann Turner, Maria Schmidt, and Kathleen DeRuntz. Members will participate in a 50c gift exchange.

A Gift for the CHILD

On that first Christmas, so long ago, came strangers bearing gifts for the wondrous Child. And thus began our warm tradition of holiday giving.

This year, we are trying to relive the spirit of that first Christmas. We have asked our employees to imagine the Christ Child has been born this Christmas. We asked them to present a Gift for the Child. A gift, created or bought, that shows the depth of their feeling at the coming of this miracle.

FIRST
GRANITE CITY NATIONAL BANK

1960 EDISON AVENUE • GRANITE CITY, ILLINOIS 62040

These gifts will be on display beneath our lobby Christmas tree. You will be surprised at the ingenuity, variety and exquisite beauty of their selections.

And, just in time for Christmas, these gifts will be distributed among the less fortunate children in the Tri-Cities by the Salvation Army.

And if you would like to submit a gift, we will display it underneath our tree as your token of the true revival of the holiday spirit.

GCHS Matmen Defeat Both Edwardsville and Normandy

Victories by the Granite City High School wrestlers against Edwardsville and Normandy here Saturday increased the team's undefeated streak to 27 victories in dual meets.

The victory over Edwardsville also was Coach Bill "Red" Schmitt's 170th consecutive victory over Southern Illinois teams. Warrior teams, under Schmitt's guidance, have not been defeated by a Southern Illinois team since 1986.

On Friday, the Warriors dominated the mat action, defeating Edwardsville 38 to 15. Granite City won 9 matches and lost three. The junior varsity squad won 57 to 9 and the sophomores blanked Edwardsville 68-0.

In Saturday's action, Granite City won seven matches while losing four. There was one draw. The Warrior junior varsity squad won 44-17 and the sophomores earned their second sweep of the weekend, 67-0.

Normandy is coached by Gus Schalkham, a former Granite City High School wrestler who was trained by Coach Schmitt.

Individual Warrior results in the varsity matches against Edwardsville and Normandy were: Pat MacMillan (98) 14-3, 7-2; Phil Lapinski (105), 4-3, 5-3; John Niebur (112), 4-1; lost 8-3.

Kerry Johnson (119), pin in 1:46, pin in 2:44; Dennis Ragan, (126), 10-0, 8-0; Dan Heath (132), pin in 4:55, lost 8-1; Dave Rushing (138), 12-4, 7-3.

Chester Pelter (145), a newcomer to the varsity lineup, lost by a fall in 5:06, lost by a pin in 3:19; Kenny Nolan (155), lost by a pin in 5:13, 14-1; John Avedisian (167), lost to Edwardsville 3-2; Jack Schooley (167), 13-3 over Normandy.

Schooley (185), 4-2 over Edwardsville; Avedisian (185), lost 6-1 to Normandy; John McMillon (heavyweight), won by forfeit, 10-10 draw.

Junior varsity winners by pins Friday were Steve Garland, Jim Caschetta, Rudy Pyle, Phil Shands, Don Heath, Dan Hasty, Brian Wilson and Jim Barker. Pinners Saturday were Pyle, Don Heath, Terry Johnson and Wilson.

Tomorrow, the Warrior varsity and sophomore teams will travel to Rite-mour for a dual meet at 4 p.m. and Friday Springfield Southeast will host the Warriors at 7 p.m.

Coach Schmitt indicated he expects this will be a difficult week. Speaking of Rite-mour, he commented, "They're always tough." And Springfield Southeast could be just as bad, he said.

Southeast was the team which ended Granite City's streak of consecutive sectional victories two years ago. Granite City has won 18 of the last 19 sectional meets. Friday will be the first time the two teams have met in dual competition.

State Favors

have a site outside of its district.

"Since proposed territory described by (Study Committee Chairman Leo H.) Konzen will be just below or right at the minimum criterion for equalized assessed valuation, population and student enrollment, the IJC staff believes that the study group should first explore annexation to an existing district, preferably Lewis and Clark, if they are interested in cooperative arrangements at SIUE."

Dr. Wellman continued, "Other alternatives that we have considered include annexation to Belleville Area College and combining with State Community College at East St. Louis to form a new district, but these choices do not appear to be as desirable to the citizens of the study group, at this time."

In addition to the recommendation approved Friday, Dr. Wellman has asked the IJC legal counsel to review three questions by Konzen for legal interpretation at the state board's January meeting.

The questions are:

1. May junior college students of Madison-Venice-Granite City-Collinsville attend classes held at SIUE?
2. Would the SIUE faculty be available to instruct junior college students in classes held on the university campus?
3. Would the SIUE faculty be available to instruct students in the IJC staff believes that the study group should first explore annexation to an existing district, preferably Lewis and Clark, if they are interested in cooperative arrangements at SIUE.

"The study group is aware that permission for any of the above three questions would have to be worked out with Southern Illinois University, with the Board of Higher Education and perhaps with other agencies," Konzen told Dr. Wellman.

"But our main concern now is the position on these matters that would be taken by the IJC."

"We are willing to send representatives of our study group to appear before your board at a regular or special meeting, or we would be willing to meet with the administrative staff of the board at any time."

Pontoon Boat Turns Down Plea to Return U.S. Fund

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

The Pontoon Beach Village Board Thursday night rejected a proposal by Trustee Dean Rochester that the $3,864 federal revenue sharing check which the village has received be returned to the federal government, earmarked toward reducing the national debt.

"The money, Rochester said, 'The board financially is very much in the black and now has money in savings certificates. I happen to like my country and Pontoon Beach is a part of it.'

"This country has a large debt and I know $4,000 won't make a hill of beans difference, but if more villages like Pontoon could amount to quite a bit."

Trustee John Cole, who is chairman of the village police committee, said that the village needs the money as the policemen are overdue for pay raises and the village police cars "are a constant source of trouble."

There are unresolved drainage problems and the village lacks a city hall and a park.

After the meeting Cole told the Press-Record he will ask that the money be paid for the village's four full-time policemen and for additional social security benefits for the officers.

Two Delivery Truck Drivers Robbed of $100

Two young armed robbers stole about $100 from two delivery truck drivers in a robbery on Monday, Dec. 11, 1972.

The deliverymen, Walter Janz of East St. Louis, and Emil Kelemen of St. Louis, said a boy scout about 15 years of age approached them and displayed a sawed-off shotgun.

He whistled and another boy, about 17, emerged from a house carrying another shotgun, the drivers said.

The boys entered the truck and forced Janz and Kelemen to take the truck to near the Laclede Steel Co. plant where they took the money.

The boys walked back toward Eagle Park Acres, carrying the guns, it was reported.

Madison, Venice and Madison County police searched the area but were unable to locate the boys.

Ted Spotsnik, sales manager for Pevely, said this morning that the Eagle Park Acres area is to be re-evaluated by the company to determine if delivery service will be continued. He said the re-evaluation is only to determine if the route is profitable and is not a result of the robbery.

Pre-Christmas Driving Tips Offered by Police

Area motorists should keep in mind the following winter driving tips during their winter travels, Granite City Police Chief Ronald J. Veizer advised.

Start and stop slowly. Allow plenty of room between you and the car ahead when pavements are covered with ice or snow. You'll need far more room to start or stop than on dry pavement whether you have studded tires or even with tire chains. Sudden changes in speed or steering can throw you into a skid.

Skids: If you should start to skid, steer into it. If the rear end slides, right—steer right; if it skids left—steer left. But keep your wheels rolling. You can't steer a car that's in a locked-wheel slide.

Stay alert. If you feel drowsy, open the window, pull off the road and rest. Get a cup of coffee or a soft drink; even get out of your car and walk around—it will help you stay alert temporarily, but there is still no substitute for being well rested before you begin a trip.

Alcohol, drugs and driving don't mix. If you drink over the holiday season, be sure to allow plenty of time for alcohol to leave your system before driving—that means about one hour per average drink. Drugs such as cold tablets, tranquilizers or even aspirin can also affect your judgment and reflexes—especially if you should have an alcoholic "one for the road" before you start your journey. Stay alert—stay alive.

Prepare your car. In addition to good tires with good treads, you need to be sure that all lights and directional signals are working properly on your car. Check your windshield wipers and washer system. Good visibility will help keep you from getting as tired at the wheel and make your travels more enjoyable as they travel.

Be ready for trouble. Your trunk should carry emergency equipment in case of foul weather or an accident—consisting of tire chains and a shovel, traction mats or a bucket of salt or sand, flares or reflectors, a flashlight, and a pair of gloves. It also helps to add a set of battery cables, a small rug and a first aid kit.

"Of most importance," Chief Veizer concluded, "Drive at a steady, moderate speed; suited to the weather and road conditions. It is imperative to drive at far slower speeds on snow and ice than on dry pavement. Sudden changes in speed or direction will be sure to cause you traction problems."

The chief pointed out that these winter "crash preventers" are based on recommendations developed by National Safety Council's winter hazards researchers and are endorsed by the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Chief Veizer then summed up his remarks this way: "A properly prepared and equipped vehicle—and driver—is the best insurance against the problems of holiday traffic."

Jolly Christmas Season Is One of Child Abuse

Springfield — If tradition holds, December again this year will be noteworthy for Christmas, cold weather, carols and an increase in child abuse cases.

Ironically, the month most associated with childish glee and good times is also one of the peak months for child beatings and general abuse and neglect. The other peak months are in the windy, early spring, in March and April.

Between July 1 this year, when the current fiscal year started, and the end of November, the state department of children and family services called a total of 483 reported cases of abuse, neglect or malnutrition in the state. Broken down, they range from a low of 33 cases in July, through 106 in August, 95 in September, 100 in October and 99 in November.

A number of trends continue in these cases, department spokesmen find. For instance, the biggest percentage of cases by far involves beating, with 233 cases reported between July and November. There were 41 reported cases of fractures, 28 cases of malnutrition, 17 burns, two poisonings, 18 sexual assaults, 24 neglect cases and 82 instances of multiple abuses.

Most Often Suspected

The mother is most often suspected of inflicting the abuse, following by the father, with stepfathers more likely to be blamed than those old fairy tale ogres, the stepmothers. Other family members, and even babysitters, are reported as inflicting abuses and injuries in numerous cases.

Abuse isn't necessarily a one time thing, or limited to one child in the family, department records indicate. In the five-month period reported so far this year, there were 36 cases of abuse reported in the same families, with 53 of them showing abuse of more than one child in the family being reported at the same time, and in three cases, the other abuses were reported at other times.

Grimsly, there were 16 deceased children involved, nine of them dead on arrival and seven others who died later as a result of abuse or neglect.

Age seems to have little to do with abuse. There were 11 cases in the five months involving infants less than a month old, and 61 cases on children one to five months old. Between six months and a year there were 49 reported cases.

Area of Abuse

Biggest area of abuse falls between one and two years, with 151 cases reported in five months for that age bracket, dropping to 89 cases involving three to five year olds. Numbers diminish even more as the children get older—or as one spokesmen said, "they're able to do so, no report to the department immediately all cases where there is reason to believe the child has been abused or deliberately neglected or starved. The law protects those making such reports by assuming they are acting in good faith and are therefore not liable to any civil or criminal action as a result."

Under Illinois law—physicians, surgeons, dentists, osteopaths, chiropractors, podiatrists, or persons authorized by a hospital to do so, must report to the department immediately all cases where there is reason to believe the child has been abused or deliberately neglected or starved. The law protects those making such reports by assuming they are acting in good faith and are therefore not liable to any civil or criminal action as a result.

The total for the first five months of 1972 equals the entire total of reports for 1965, when the law was first effective.

Silver Belles Seniors Hold Yule Party

A Christmas luncheon and party for members of the Silver Belles Senior Citizen's Club took place Thursday in the Venice Recreation Center on Broadway, Venice.

Seasonal carols and hymns were sung and devotions were offered by the Rev. Dan Bankhead of Venice, who is pastor of the Upper Altamonte Church. The minister quoted from Psalms 133 and spoke briefly on the value of fellowship.

Remarks also were made by the Rev. A. T. Jefferson, chaplain of the Venice-Madison senior citizen's organization, who expressed his appreciation for the thoughtfulness of many people at this time of year.

Mrs. Mary Cross led the group in a "guessing" game and gifts were presented to the birthdays of Mrs. Arthur Duckett, Mrs. Eva Stinson, Mrs. Jeffery Paige and Mrs. Florence Leach.

The hall was bedecked with festive decorations for the Christmas season, with a large Christmas tree as the focal point in the room. Gifts were exchanged between the members, who spent the remainder of the afternoon socially.

A large red and green felt boot filled with candy centered the table, and miniature wicker trees were placed at the ends of the table. The exchange gifts were arranged as a chain across the head table.

A business meeting was presided over by the Unit chairman, Mrs. Bea Rittenhouse. Gifts were exchanged and secret pairs were revealed.

The centerpiece was given to Mrs. Lucille Pierce. Hostesses for the day in charge of decorations, table arrangements and favors were Mrs. Ada Matras, Mrs. Marilyn Deatherage, Mrs. Villa Ridings and Mrs. June Lux.

Carols were led by the hostesses, and it was announced that the next meeting will be Tuesday, Jan. 2, at Rope Lutheran Church.

Christmas Lunch for Chapter HT

Red candles arranged with English ivy decorated the table for a Christmas luncheon last week in the home of Mrs. B. S. Miller, 3220 Princeton Drive, attended by members of Chapter HT of the P.E.O. Sisterhood.

Co-hostess, Mrs. M. E. Anderson, and Mrs. Miller presented each member with a handmade corsage of ivy and bells, created of green and red felt.

Mrs. E. G. Marshman was in charge of the program and read several Christmas stories, including "Open House At Christmas," "A Boy's Christmas Complaint" and "What Is Christmas?"

Afterwards the group sang holiday carols accompanied at the piano by Mrs. E. F. Reiske. An unusual gift exchange was arranged by the hostesses, whereby each guest received a present after participating in a "musical chairs" type game. Instead of changing chairs, the members exchanged their gifts to music.

Others attending the affair were Mesdames R. E. Backs, W. W. Bowers, A. F. Buente, H. R. Fischer, G. E. Halyama, R. W. Kerch, C. W. Kohl, L. H. Konzen, C. E. Mathias, Arthur Menendez, I. D. Stoeckmeyer, I. C. Slate, A. C. Stoeckmeyer, Paul Surbey and R. M. West.

Kirkpatrick Homes Lacks Heat 16 Hours

Inoperative gauges which prevented the flow of sufficient gas to heat apartments at Kirkpatrick Homes Saturday night and early Sunday were repaired about noon yesterday, relieving an emergency that could have resulted in evacuating many families.

The gas flow from the housing units five 30,000-gallon tanks was reduced to a trickle shortly after 8 p.m. Saturday, apparently because of frozen gauges, David Morgan, chairman of the Granite City Housing Authority, reported.

Repairsmen worked throughout the night and were able to eliminate the trouble in time to prevent many families from moving in with friends or into other shelter.

Morgan said it was the first time in the history of the housing authority that such difficulty has developed.

GC Levee Trucks to Use Own Gasoline Supplies

An order under which workers employed at the East Side Levee and Sanitary District garage in Granite City were required to drive to East St. Louis to obtain gasoline for district trucks and cars was rescinded Thursday by Ronel Wilbon, levee board president.

The order was rescinded at the insistence of William "Mick" Ebersold of Venice and Russell Robinson of Granite City, Madison County members of the levee district board of trustees, who met informally Thursday with several St. Clair County trustees.

Ebersold pointed out that the requirement of driving trucks from the Granite City garage to the levee district garage at 2000 McCasland Ave., E. St. Louis, for servicing "took two to three hours extra every time the trucks needed gasoline."

The order was rescinded Dec. 6 by Wilbon following a reorganization meeting of the newly elected levee board. Ebersold was unable to attend the meeting because he was hospitalized at the time.

Wilbon directed that all trucks and cars operated by the district would be serviced at the East St. Louis garage. The order covered the Granite City levee district garage at 1707 Madison Ave.

Ebersold noted that the Granite City garage is equipped with two gasoline servicing tanks, one for regular and one for high-test gasoline.

The Granite City garage which services the Madison County sector of the levee district operates five trucks and one passenger car for office use, Ebersold said.

Some Good News—Legislators Create Two New Levee Districts

Illinois legislators performed a substantial public service Saturday—and struck a blow for the cause of good government—by voting to divide the East Side Levee and Sanitary District. The measure now can be signed into law by Governor Ogilvie.

The overwhelming margins by which House Bill 2416 passed the Senate and House are an indication of the strong public support for it in this region.

The enthusiasm for change is based on confidence that two districts—each serving a single, cohesive community—can develop the kind of dialogue between citizens and officials that is conducive to orderly, efficient government.

The long and sad history of the East Side Levee District dates back to 1907 and is replete with instances of graft, costly contracts and wanton waste.

While greed and corruption have not been abolished from the world of 1972, much of the problem associated with the Levee District over the years has involved politicians of one or the other party taking advantage of under-represented taxpayers residing far from them.

Thanks to the General Assembly, this will no longer be the case. There is genuine hope that with the new boundaries, each affected community will be able to keep thorough track of what is being done and encourage it to act consistently in the best interest of the people.

Some Bad News—General Steel to Close Its Castings Division

The decision to close the Castings Division of General Steel Industries, even though the "punch" was "telegraphed" in the early autumn, still is jolting.

GSI President Ashley Gray cited operating losses and poor sales prospects for the industrial and railroad castings and frames produced here.

The difficulty of operating vast aging facilities in the face of a faltering product demand is obvious. Nevertheless, the human element undoubtedly also has played a role.

When any enterprise fails, decisions made by management at some point or another in its history are subject to challenge. And union willingness to accept widely differing contract terms at two competing plants raises the question of whether one geographic location has been sacrificed in favor of another.

Once known as the Commonwealth Steel Co., the local plant was built in July 1902 and acquired in 1904 by Clarence H. Howard and Harry M. Pillager. Howard remained as president until July 1929, when the plant was sold to the General Steel Castings Co. of Eddystone, Pa.

Close Its Castings Division

General Steel later halted its operations at Eddystone and the corporate headquarters were established first here and then in St. Louis. Charles Powell, president of the company, died in 1945, and his son, Charles, as president, launched a major diversification program in 1955.

Employment approximated 2,000 here a decade ago but dropped below the 1,000 mark late this year. Most eventually may have been laid off.

Completion of present orders will result in continued castings production through much of 1973.

At the end of a 70-year era is a sad occasion, even when changing times and needs are the chief factors.

It will now be important to find as many jobs as possible for the highly capable workers affected by the shutdown, and to devise any feasible ways of utilizing the spacious and extensively equipped plant facilities.

Revisions Needed Before Tax Freeze Could Be Enacted

By MAURICE W. SCOTT
Executive Vice-President
Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

The chief bills in the "property tax freeze" legislative package in the Illinois Senate and House are Senate Bill 7 and House Bill 1.

These identical bills provide that after Dec. 31, 1972, and including Jan. 1, 1977, no county clerk shall extend for property taxes, for any fund other than a taxing district, an amount greater than the amount extended by the county clerk for such fund of the taxing district in 1972.

If no extension is made by the county clerk for a fund in 1973, the amount frozen in such case will be the amount last extended by the county clerk.

This provision needs amending to take care of the situation where a reduced rate was last extended to reduce a surplus or balance on hand.

Exemptions or modifications in the legislation are:

(1) Referendum rates established after Dec. 31, 1972, and funds created by referendum after Dec. 31, 1972, are exempt. Needs amending to also include funds of local governments created by referendum after Dec. 31, 1972.

(2) Property taxes to meet minimum qualifying rates prescribed by law to obtain state aid or grants are exempt (such as qualifying rates for school districts, general assistance and motor fuel grants).

No Strings on Use of Shared Funds For High Priority Local Purposes

Sharing of federal tax revenue with local-level government agencies—now a reality—has become one of the leading topics of officials and taxpayers.

Theodore H. Mikseel, executive director of the Southwest Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, provides these answers for some of the questions voiced most often about revenue sharing:

1. Who is entitled to receive revenue sharing funds?
All general purpose governments—states, counties, cities, villages and townships—are qualified by law to receive revenue sharing funds. Special purpose or limited purpose governments, i.e., sanitary districts, etc., are not eligible to receive revenue sharing funds.

2. What is the philosophy behind the formula which compares the population, per capita income, and local tax effort of each state and county? The amount of revenue sharing funds is determined by the need of the state or local unit of government to receive revenue sharing funds.

By putting the greatest emphasis on per capita income and tax effort, the bill attempts to provide the largest amount of revenue sharing funds to the states and local units of government.

3. Can Illinois or any other state change its allocation formula?

Yes, the act includes a provision permitting states to modify the allocation formula to be used in distributing funds to the local units of government. This allows the state to shift the weight or emphasis of general tax factors and relative income factors in the allocation of revenue sharing funds.

However, a state may exercise this option only once during the five-year term of the program and this action requires enactment of a public law by Congress.

What sort of audit procedure is planned for revenue sharing?

At the start, a staff will be set up to back up normal state, county and township audits. It is expected that this staff will audit about 300 routine audits yearly on a statistical sample basis.

In addition, there will be special audits in cases of irregularities, discrimination cases, wage problem cases, and so on. The act requires that revenue sharing funds be used only for projects where Davis-Bacon minimum wage standards are met.

All laborers and mechanics employed by contractors who are subcontractors in the performance of work on any construction project when 25% or more of the cost of the project is being paid out of revenue sharing funds will be paid wages at rates not less than those prevailing on similar construction in the locality as determined by the Secretary of Labor in accordance with the Davis-Bacon Act.

6. When will the checks to local governments be sent by the U. S. Treasury? What will be their amounts?
The U. S. Treasury's target date for the first check was early this month.

The schedule for the second check is early January 1973. Thereafter, the Treasury will issue checks quarterly.

The first check will be for the first six months of calendar year 1972, the first entitlement period; the second check will be for the second half of 1972, the second entitlement period.

7. How will entitlement amounts for county areas and county governments be calculated?
The allocation to Illinois is divided for each entitlement period between the state government and local governments, one-third going to the former and two-thirds going to the latter.

The amount for local governments is then divided among the 102 county areas of the state on the basis of each county area's population. Its general tax effort is counted as part of the local government's general jurisdiction.

8. Are there any restrictions on what federal revenue sharing funds may be spent for?
Federal revenue sharing funds may not be used directly or indirectly to get other federal money; the monies may not be used directly or indirectly as the local financing or matching funds for participation in a federal grant or loan program.

9. May revenue sharing funds be used for capital expenditures?
Yes, Ordinary and necessary capital expenditures authorized by law is a priority expenditure available to local governments.

10. Will purchase of land by a unit of local government satisfy the capital expenditure priority requirements?
Yes. However, the purchase of land which is to be used for the emergency room and I was cared for within five minutes. A doctor was present supervising my care, which was equally thorough and efficient. PAUL CRAKE

PLEASED WITH CARE AT LOCAL HOSPITAL
To the Editor:
I recently had occasion to undergo a series of tests for a condition, requiring a rather lengthy stay in the hospital, at the direction of my doctor. These tests were to be made at St. Elizabeth Hospital here in Granite City.

I entered the hospital with some doubts about my projected treatment and care because I had heard "nothing" regarding the local hospital. I would hereby like to set the record straight.

From the time I crawled into bed until I was discharged, all the tests they could think of, I couldn't have been treated better or been in better hands.

The food was not "gourmet" type but was on a bland diet and even Julia Child couldn't make that diet taste like a good home-cooked banquet.

My food was served hot and on time and was attractively presented.

Though there was an obvious shortage of nursing help, which is unfortunately still a national problem, St. Elizabeth seemed to be operating efficiently and every technician and aide was competent and friendly.

These ten years will serve as both a "thank you" and a testimonial to the staff at St. Elizabeth Hospital and will offset some of the detractors who are so disappointed at any medical facility in the U. S.

A few days later I had to be readmitted to the hospital for requirements.

There are two types of reports required by the act. Each local government must submit a report to the Secretary of the Treasury for each entitlement period, setting forth the amounts and purposes for which the funds received have been spent, appropriated or obligated.

The first check will be for the first entitlement period, January 1, 1972 through June 30, 1972; the report on the use of those funds must be filed with the Secretary before March 1, 1973.

The report must be on a form provided by the Secretary and must contain a certification by the chief executive officer of the local government that the entitlement funds have been spent in accordance with the purposes for which the funds were received.

11. What should the local official do with a federal revenue sharing fund that receives funds from the U. S. Treasury?
Federal revenue sharing funds may be used for a variety of purposes, including the purchase of land, the construction of school buildings, etc.

12. May revenue sharing funds be used for capital expenditures?
Yes, Ordinary and necessary capital expenditures authorized by law is a priority expenditure available to local governments.

13. Will purchase of land by a unit of local government satisfy the capital expenditure priority requirements?
Yes. However, the purchase of land which is to be used as a contribution to an "in-kind" federal match would be a violation of the matching funds prohibition.

14. May revenue sharing funds be used for capital expenditures?
Yes, Ordinary and necessary capital expenditures authorized by law is a priority expenditure available to local governments.

15. May revenue sharing funds be used for capital expenditures?
Yes, Ordinary and necessary capital expenditures authorized by law is a priority expenditure available to local governments.

16. May revenue sharing funds be used for capital expenditures?

17. May revenue sharing funds be used for capital expenditures?

18. May revenue sharing funds be used for capital expenditures?

19. May revenue sharing funds be used for capital expenditures?

20. May revenue sharing funds be used for capital expenditures?

WHERE DO THEY STORE THE ELECTRICITY FOR OUR TOWN?
WELL... ER... WE USE A LOT OF ELECTRICITY TOO.

THEY MUST. IT'S ALWAYS THERE WHEN YOU PUG SOMETHING IN.
WELL, YOU SEE YOU CAN'T STORE ELECTRICITY LIKE YOU CAN WATER.

I KNOW... BUT THE POWER COMPANY HAS TO MAKE IT THE SAME TIME YOU WANT TO USE IT.
THEY DO?

WELL, IF YOU CAN'T STORE UP ELECTRICITY, HOW DOES THE MAN AT THE POWER COMPANY KNOW HOW MUCH TO MAKE?
LET'S TALK ABOUT THAT TOMORROW.

At Illinois Power Company we're producing more energy to meet your needs all the time. That's our business. We have to be able to produce all the electricity you need the instant you demand it.

But using energy wisely is everybody's business. Conserving energy is good business for all of us.

Court Procedure To Speed Trial Of Civil Cases

An updated court procedure aimed at shortening the time involved in handling civil cases in the Third Judicial Circuit has been outlined by Chief Circuit Judge Fred P. Schuman at Edwardsville.

Schuman, who became chief justice following the retirement last month of Michael M. Kinney, said he will seek opinions on the procedure from lawyers and law enforcement officials before commenting on the program.

Judge Schuman announced assignment of all civil jury cases in Madison County to five circuit judges: James O. Monroe, Joseph J. Barr, Harold R. Clark, William L. Beatty and Victor J. Mosele.

Judges Beatty, Clark and Monroe will preside in Edwardsville, Judge Barr in East Alton and Judge Mosele in Granite City, according to the new procedure outline.

Judge John Gitchoff will be in charge of criminal cases and will preside in Edwardsville.

Each of the five civil judges have been assigned an equal number of cases and each judge will set his own dates for trial of the cases, rather than the dates being set by the chief judge, Schuman said.

All motions may be passed on by the judge in charge of the case without a setting or arguments, following pre-trial discovery hearings. This will eliminate many special hearings which cause long delays in disposing of civil cases.

Two Arrested, Charged By Madison Officer

John Wesley Perdue, 19, of 31 Milled Drive, was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct at 1001 Iowa St., Madison, Saturday at 12:45 a.m. He was released on $25 bond.

Also arrested at the same location at 12:46 a.m. Saturday was charged with disorderly conduct was Jonathan Alvin Thompson, 20, of 1661 Fourth St., Madison, Thompson was released on $25 bond. Sgt. William Fanning of the Madison Police made both arrests.

SIXTH STREET ACCIDENT

Autos driven by Paul E. Jones, 2986 Washington Ave., and Thomas R. Wood, 821 Staunton St., Madison, collided at Sixth Street and McCambridge Avenue at 8 a.m. Friday.

Gardner Succeeds Bellcoff As Head of Planning Group

Robert L. Gardner of Waterloo, Monroe County road superintendent, was elected Thursday night at Augustine's Restaurant Belleville, as the 1973 president of the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission.

He succeeds John Bellcoff, Madison city clerk and bank official, the 1972 SIMAPC president. The planning office includes voting membership on the board of directors of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

At the quarterly SIMAPC meeting Thursday, the group also elected Al Young, Stokely Township supervisor and a St. Clair County Board member, as vice-president; Edward G. Holzweg of Collinsville, secretary; and Charles G. Chenoweth of Belleville, treasurer.

Gardner served as vice-president this year, while Holzweg and Chenoweth currently hold the secretary and treasurer posts. Theodore H. Milesell is SIMAPC executive director.

Those elected to the executive committee Thursday were: Bellcoff; Nelson Hagnauer, Granite City Township supervisor and Madison County Board chairman; Alton May, a Madison County Board member; Henry Blome, a member of the St. Clair County Board; Elmer Prange, a Monroe County commissioner; Kenneth Stelhorn, a Randolph County commissioner; and Leroy Marks, chairman of the Centerville Planning Commission.

The guest speaker, J. A. Trammell of the Illinois Department of Local Government Services, said the U. S. Treasury Department will monitor federal revenue to assure that it is not used as matching funds to obtain other federal grants.

If matching funds in 1973 or future years exceed those of 1972, the increase will have to be used to either a gain in all revenue, a cut in spending or a fund surplus from the past, Trammell reported.

BURGLARY ATTEMPT

Gary Whitworth, 2909 Buxton Ave., reported someone attempted to enter his home Sunday morning by breaking a window in the basement. When he heard the noise he got his shotgun and fired a shot at a shadow at the rear of his house. Police found no one but reported the intruder tried to force the kitchen door.

HOUSE BURGLARY

Jesse Fildes, 2339 East 24th St., reported a burglary at his home at 12:07 a.m. Sunday. Entrance was gained by breaking a door glass at the back of his house. Items taken from a bedroom dresser drawer included coins valued at $250 to $300 and a gold pocket watch.

SIU Asks Funding of New Buildings at Local Campus

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees Friday requested the state Board of Higher Education to release enough money from its cost increase reserve fund to allow for the construction of two classroom buildings on the University's Edwardsville campus.

Bids for the two new buildings were received earlier this month by the Illinois Capital Development Board. Actual construction costs will total $12,011,794, several hundred thousand dollars above architects' estimates.

The SIU trustees were told the difference can be covered by the cost increase reserve fund, totalling about 10% of major building projects. The fund is held in reserve by the Board of Higher Education to cover contingencies which arise as the project proceeds from planning board to reality.

The reserve fund for the two buildings totals $1,426,630, about 10% of the $14,266,300 released last August by Illinois Gov. Richard Ogilvie.

If final approval is given by the Illinois Board of Higher Education and the Capital Development Board, construction on the two buildings could begin in January, 1973. They will be erected north of the Peck Classroom Building in the academic core area.

The SIU trustees also urged the Capital Development Board to hold specialty bidders to their bids opened Dec. 1 in Chicago. The apparent low bidders on specialty contracts for electrical work have since tried to revise their bids upward.

Apparent low bidder on the general construction contract for the two buildings is J. J. Altman Construction Co. of East St. Louis, with a bid of $8,189,910. The five specialty bids totalled $4,146,884.

Gas Shortage Due to Cold Curtails Some Operations

A shortage of natural gas is responsible for curtailing of some operations and layoffs of about 50 workers at Consolidated Aluminum Products Corp. in Venice, Charles Zollner, plant manager, said today.

Mississippi River Transmission Corp., St. Louis, and Granite City Steel Co., curtailed the gas supply to those businesses by about one-third several days ago.

Conalco utilized propane for some of its operations but became necessary to cut production about 15% as the supply of propane became depleted, Zollner indicated. Layoffs began Friday and are continuing today, he said.

At Granite City Steel Co., blast furnace and coke oven gas, produced within the plant, are being used for operations, supplemented by fuel oil. The curtailment of the gas supply has not affected operations at all, a company spokesman said today.

Illinois Power Co. began curtailment of a portion of the gas supply to several commercial users Dec. 5, but John

Public Aid Checks Are Being Counterfeited

State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon said last week that public aid checks are being counterfeited, apparently by a single source, and that he has warned Chicago area banks and currency exchanges to be on the lookout for the fakes.

In a statement issued in Springfield, Dixon said a currency exchange operator last week brought to the attention of his office staff "a pretty good copy" of a welfare check, and a search of checks returned after payment in recent days "turned up several more of the forgeries."

Dixon emphasized that "these are not the regular public aid warrants" drawn on the State Treasury, but rather checks against a special emergency bank of Springfield.

They resemble checks issued to destitute persons in emergency situations and are generally for amounts somewhat in excess of $100.

Dixon stressed that "the state will not lose a cent" as a result of the counterfeiting, but said, "We feel it is important to protect the banks, currency operators and merchants who regularly cash these checks."

To date, he said, some $1,500 is involved, "but it seems apparent that enough effort has gone into the counterfeiting scheme to indicate a much more sizeable operation." The treasurer said his office has asked the Illinois State Police for assistance in locating the source of the forged checks and initiating prosecution of the offenders.

State Frees $115,350 For SIU Remodeling

Remodeling and rehabilitation funds totaling $115,350 have been released for use at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville by the Bureau of the Budget. Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie signed the release after the request from SIUE had been reviewed by the staff of Gov. elect Dan Walker.

The funds were included in the capital budget for the current fiscal year. The university had requested release of the funds in October.

About $40,000 will be used to reduce noise levels on three floors of Lovejoy Library. About $75,000 will be used to remodel a storage area at the university's Wagner property in Edwardsville for use, as teaching laboratories for the art department.

Basement areas of the Science and Technology Building are now being used for art laboratories. Once the remodeling is completed university officials hope to use the Science and Technology Building space to expand laboratories for the Nursing Division and science classes. It may also be possible to create one general purpose classroom in the space which

Gross National Product Rise Best Since 1966

"See how I've grown." The economy in 1972 could well make this boast.

It has expanded faster than in any year since 1966, and an improvement in prices, productivity and profits has taken place.

Dr. Charles Moeller Jr., vice-president and economist for Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., in a newly released report, "Prices, Productivity, Profits," estimates that total production of goods and services—or GNP—may show a 9½% annual gain in terms of current dollars.

Allowing for price increases, this represents a gain in "real" terms of more than 6%.

The report points out that the New Economic Policy has been an important contributing factor in the large gains in output.

It then examines the improvement in prices, productivity and profits that has taken place within the framework of this expanding economic activity.

These results as well as the future direction of present policies should be assessed in a longer-term context, the report concludes.

While emphasizing that inflation continues to be one of the most vexing problems faced by the economy, the economists say that the initial three-month wage-price freeze and the activities of the Price Commission and Pay Board have helped to curb an inflationary trend already losing some force when the New Economic Policy was instituted.

The year-to-year 3% price increase which has prevailed since May 1972 represents a decided improvement over increases recorded only two years ago.

However, the report points out that this 3% rise, if continued, will mean that the dollar that will buy $1 worth of goods and services now would purchase only about 75 cents worth of the same items in 10 years.

Whether or not such a rate can be improved upon over a period of time depends on the achievement of good productivity growth, the maintenance of a proper balance in the structure, and the reduction of some of the institutional and structural barriers throughout the economy.

Wage and salary changes, the Metropolitan report notes, constitute a significant influence on the course of prices.

Hourly earnings in the private economy, including overtime and covering both white-collar and blue-collar workers organized as well as non-union employees, rose more than 6½% this year, or about the same as in 1971.

Wage increases agreed upon in collective bargaining contracts in the first nine months of 1972 averaged 6.6% over the life of the contract, down from 8½% in the same period of 1971.

When deferred wage increases and cost-of-living adjustments that went into effect in the first three quarters of 1972 are combined with first-year raises negotiated in new settlements, the average wage change that actually occurred under union agreements was 5.3%.

However, the business economics department said it recognizes that key labor contracts covering 4½-million workers will be renegotiated next year against a backdrop of substantial economic growth and somewhat tightened labor markets.

The gap between wage and productivity increases must be narrowed further, the economists say, if price stability is to succeed and if the economy is to be freed from inflation and the control mechanisms set up to curb it.

Productivity continued its strong thrust, at a sharp annual rate in the second quarter and nearly 4% in the third quarter, resulting in the first decline in unit labor cost in the private economy since 1965.

However, the report points out, the gains in output per man-hour are likely to begin tapering off, as opportunities to utilize slack resources in industry diminish.

Metropolitan Life's economists point out that productivity levels can be boosted in a positive way by technological advances, more and better plant and capital equipment in the hands of more skilled and efficient management, and a better trained and better educated work force.

Equally important, they say, are the tanks of correcting negative impacts—such as waste, working habits, eliminating restrictions on production, transportation, and distribution techniques and removing other restrictions that inhibit the economy's ability to meet changing demands for goods and services.

During the present recovery and expansion period, corporate profits have shown reasonably good improvement, despite Phase II restraints on price increases, margins, and reached record levels in the third quarter of 1972.

Further gains are expected during the remainder of the year.

Factors contributing to the current expansion of profits are the extensive cost-cutting effected during the recession period, followed by improved volumes of business.

The latter permitted fixed costs of production to be spread over a larger number of units and allowed more units of production to be sold.

The cost-cutting involved reduction in the number of employees, cutbacks in research, development and advertising expenditures and increased efforts by corporations to reduce operating costs.

Despite this cost-cutting, the bulk of the improvement in profit aggregates stems from the rise in business activity rather than from widening profit margins.

For the full year of 1972, corporate profits before taxes are expected to be up 13% and 14%, respectively.

Corporate profits before taxes should cross the $100-billion mark in 1973.

But the gains are not expected to be as large as in the current year because of less rapid productivity gains, a somewhat slower rate of real economic growth and continued restraints on price increases at a time when cost pressures may intensify.

Gains of 9% to 10% are most likely for corporate earnings in 1973, with profits before taxes running about $103 billion and after-tax profits totaling $58 billion.

Even with the improvement that has occurred from the 1970 low point, profits before taxes account for about 10% of national income now, compared with a peak of almost 18% at the beginning of the 1960s.

The report emphasizes that, in addition to serving as a reward to the suppliers of capital, corporate profits have other impacts on the economy.

At present, 44% of corporate profits are necessary to pay corporate income taxes, and represented about 16% of all federal tax revenues collected in recent years.

Most important of all, profits are the keystone to business investment in new plant and equipment.

If the longer-run goals of the New Economic Policy regarding improvement in productivity and in the competitiveness of U.S. products in world markets are to be realized, Dr. Moeller asserts, it is essential that the current rise in profits not be halted by controls.

In Memoriam 33

In loving memory of DONNA BONE, December 20, 1990. We cannot, Lor, Thy purpose. But it is well that's done by Thee. There is a link death cannot sever. Love and remembrance last forever. Sadly missed by Children and Grandchildren. 33-12-18

In living memory of ALVIN DORRIS who departed this life December 20, 1962. Seven years from this world of pain and sorrow To the land of peace and rest. One where you have found God has taken you, dear loved one where you have found eternal rest. When his listless hand were folded across his paleless breast I knew the gates were opened To the land of peace at rest. Somewhere on the unseen shore He watches, beckons and waits for our arrival. When over the river, the peaceful river The angel of death shall carry me. Sadly missed by wife, Edna. 33-12-18

In loving memory of DAVID L. GANTY who passed away December 19, 1970. We loved you, we miss you And wish you were here. Sweet memories of you we shall always have. Sadly missed by Mother and Dad, Brothers and Sisters

Year-Around School Study Will Await Transfer of Ninth Graders

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Page 28 Mon., Dec. 18, 1972

Because the Granite City School District is preparing to convert from three years of junior high school and three years of high school back to two-year junior highs and four-year high schools, it will delay for the time being a study of year-around schooling.

The District Nine board of education has decided to consider funding such a study through its next annual budget, it was disclosed today.

Part or all of the estimated $10,000 to $15,000 cost of the study is expected to be provided by the state under Senate Bill 1431.

However, the study is not a part of the 1972-73 district budget. And Bill 1431 revenue available immediately would amount to only $2,450.

In the meantime, some Illinois districts are proceeding with year-around studies and their results are likely to be available here, a discussion by board members and administrators brought out.

"Future versions of amendments to Bill 1431 may provide for larger amounts of assistance to local districts," Assistant Supt. Frank L. Kraus told the board.

The major transition in which the school system currently is involved calls for opening of Granite City High School North in September 1973 after closing of Central Junior High School in June 1973.

At present, the single high school (renamed Granite City High School South) accommodates all tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade students.

There are three-year (seventh-eighth-ninth grades) programs at Coolidge, Grigsby and Prather Junior High Schools as well as seventh and eighth grades at Central.

Assignment of ninth graders to junior high schools has proven necessary in recent years due to overcrowding at GHS.

Next fall, with two high schools operating, it will be possible for them to accept freshmen as well as sophomores, juniors and seniors.

This will relieve the Coolidge, Grigsby and Prather buildings to the extent that they will be able to absorb all seventh and eighth grade pupils, enabling use of central to be discontinued due to the age of that school and its lack of a playground.

No specific utilization of the Central building has been decided upon, and the district is considering the possibility of converting it to a high school.

"The bill is not based on any presumption regarding the educational or financial advantages or disadvantages of the 12-month operation, but rather facilitates the process of study—currently considering all local conditions and attitudes."

"It is strongly recommended by the state that districts desiring to conduct a full-year school study use the same organizational structure that is found in the external and internal feasibility study plan."

"This would include the use of an advisory committee, local citizen committee and additional subcommittees as needed."

"Contractual procedures with the Illinois School District Reorganization and Facilities Section will be the same as those of the external and internal feasibility studies. It is mandatory that a contract be signed before any money is spent."

"The role of the state superintendent's staff is that of a combination resource person in an advisory capacity, and as a liaison between consultants, school officials and citizen groups. Staff members are available as resource persons in presenting information and in holding preliminary and follow-up informational meetings."

"School districts may receive funds for the purpose of conducting a study of the feasibility of operating one or more schools within the district on a full-year school plan pursuant to Section 10-1.1 of The School Code of Illinois, such feasibility studies shall include:

"I. The educational program.
"II. Building and space needs.
"III. Administrative and personnel costs.
"IV. Pupil distribution in the district.
"V. Community activities.
"VI. Transportation costs.
"VII. Transitional costs.
"VIII. Equal educational opportunity."

Kraus continued, "I have been in touch with James Medlock, who is in charge of this from the state office. He sent Doyle Winterrowd to our office to answer questions concerning what is required of a school district to qualify for a grant to conduct a study."

"Should the board decide to make application for this grant, Mr. Winterrowd emphasized the following:

"1. The district must hire an outside consultant to conduct the study.
"2. The consultant hired can either be a private firm or a team of professors from some university.
"3. The money given to the district by the state can be used only to help pay for the consultant service.
"4. Our school district, according to formula, would receive the maximum amount allowable.
"5. Estimated cost for study according to Mr. Winterrowd is that a district of our size would range somewhere between $10,000 and $15,000."

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals decided Thursday to recommend the rejection of an appeal by Mal Landfill, a special use permit to expand Mal Landfill in Chouteau Township, but final ruling in the matter will be up to the Madison County Board in its meeting Wednesday.

Operators of the landfill want to expand into an adjoining 240-acre tract. They claim that the present landfill will be filled in February.

Chouteau Township residents and the Madison County Environmental Control Committee are opposing the expansion because of a high water table and the possible pollution of wells and underground water supply.

The Mal request for a permit was tabled by the board of appeals on Dec. 6, but production by opponents resulted in a decision during a special meeting Thursday.

Some sources reported today that supporters of the Mal program have sufficient strength to override the zoning board recommendation in Wednesday's County Board meeting. Twenty-one votes would be needed to override the zoning board.

Board members Roy Fritz, Leo Sedlacek, Harold Peters, Bill Parker and Howard Kaseberg, chairman of the board, voted to deny the petition. Supporting the request for a use permit were David John of Granite City and Bill Marks of Wood River.

County Zoning Board Rejects Landfill Plea

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals decided Thursday to recommend the rejection of an appeal by Mal Landfill, a special use permit to expand Mal Landfill in Chouteau Township, but final ruling in the matter will be up to the Madison County Board in its meeting Wednesday.

Operators of the landfill want to expand into an adjoining 240-acre tract. They claim that the present landfill will be filled in February.

Chouteau Township residents and the Madison County Environmental Control Committee are opposing the expansion because of a high water table and the possible pollution of wells and underground water supply.

The Mal request for a permit was tabled by the board of appeals on Dec. 6, but production by opponents resulted in a decision during a special meeting Thursday.

Some sources reported today that supporters of the Mal program have sufficient strength to override the zoning board recommendation in Wednesday's County Board meeting. Twenty-one votes would be needed to override the zoning board.

Board members Roy Fritz, Leo Sedlacek, Harold Peters, Bill Parker and Howard Kaseberg, chairman of the board, voted to deny the petition. Supporting the request for a use permit were David John of Granite City and Bill Marks of Wood River.

FALLS ON ICE

Mrs. Harriet Malwitz, Rural Route One, Box 1320, fell on ice on the city parking lot at 1800 Edison Ave., at 1 p.m. Friday and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital. It was reported at 2 p.m. Saturday. She was transferred to Jewish Hospital for treatment of a broken right ankle.

STEREO, TAPES STOLEN

A Pioneer turntable, lamp, a stereo and 50 tapes were taken from the mobile home of Roger Love, 2301 Nameoki Road, at 3 p.m. Sunday. Entry was gained by breaking the glass in the door.

Salary Problems Plague Madison County Board

By MARION BARTOSIAK
Press-Record Staff Writer

The Madison County Board will be faced with problems of salaries for county employees after nearly all fronts when it meets Wednesday morning at the Courthouse in Edwardsville. Though some adjustments provided for pay hikes and benefits in the new county budget adopted last month the board's Finance Committee is continuing negotiations with the agents for the Sheriff's Department.

The board now also is in the middle of a rift between employees in the courthouse. Budgeted for sheriff's employees are raises of between 1 and 2%, but the Operating Engineers Union Local 520, representing deputies, jailers and dispatchers, is asking for more in addition to a major medical program in the insurance coverage.

Dave Gaspar, Local 520 business agent, said the pay increase sought lies within the 5½ percent wage guidelines.

Job Classification

In making adjustments for courthouse employees, the board adopted a job classification study made by R. C. Scheffel & Co. of Alton, which reported that some employees are underpaid and recommended that they be upgraded.

The Scheffel study found substantial inequities in the pay scales, depending upon department heads, including elected officials who believe they are authorized to set salaries for their own employees. But some observers say that it often depends upon the amount of political pressure received from the employee or upon a family relationship. One of the top clerks in the courthouse recently quipped, "The boss doesn't think women should make much money."

Though the board in the budget attempted to equalize salaries as much as funds permitted, and granted a raise of 1% across-the-board, the employee union, Local 56 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, is seeking a $30 monthly increase across-the-board.

Strike Authorized

The local bargaining agents were authorized to call a strike if they deemed it to be necessary, but 45 union members have signed petitions against the union stand.

That faction believes that the Scheffel study is sound and its recommendations should be followed. They are employed mostly in the offices of the circuit clerk and county clerk.

The union dissenters assert that the strike vote passed because members opposing the study control the union and gave insufficient information on the meeting and its purpose.

Fred Painter of Granite City, union treasurer, has said that the Finance Committee decided to use 70% of it to equalize salaries and erase discrepancies with the rest going across-the-board.

Painter argues that with the across-the-board rate at 1%, the bookwork involved in granting it, necessitating a change in payrolls, deductions, taxes, and other incidentals, would cost more than the increase in worth. Division of Funds. Painter also claims that the division of the larger amount among departments was inequitable, claiming that the Veterans Commission, which has three employees, received as much as the treasurer's office with its large staff, and that the office of the recorder of deeds received $434 while other offices received as much as $30,000.

The union dissenters maintain that opponents of the inequity adjustments are those who benefit most from the inequities, who receive more pay for the same work than others do for lower wages. They charge that the opponents are the patronage employees who would lose their wage advantage if adjustments are made.

The Finance Committee plans to follow the Scheffel study and feels its implementation will eliminate gossip and dissension in the courthouse, according to J. J. Gramlich, committee chairman.

Also clouding the picture is interpretation of a statute which some maintain provides that elected officials, not the county board, shall establish salaries within their own offices. The board then could recommend salaries only for the building and zoning and maps and plans departments, the Veterans Commission and other departments established by the board.
